ICC Chukotka
Irina Mishina, President
Zinaida Chernousova, Council Member

Board of Directors

Representatives from 8 communities elect a Board of Directors to guide the work of ICC Chukotka.

ICC Alaska
Marie Greene, President
Nicole Kanayurak Wojciechowski, Council Member

Board of Directors

The membership of ICC Alaska includes representatives of Inuit regional organizations from the North Slope Borough, Northwest Arctic Borough, the Bering Straits Region and the Yukon- Kuskokwin Region.

ICC Chair
Sara Olsvig

ICC Greenland
Kuupik V. Kleist, President
Nuka Kleemann, Council Member

Board of Directors

ICC Greenland is composed of 18 members representing the vast spectrum of Greenland society, including women's associations, its Hunters and Fishermen's Association (KNAPK), its workers union (SIK), Greenland's parliament, political parties, youth and teachers. It is these same members that make up Greenland's 18 delegates to the ICC General Assembly.

ICC Canada
Lisa Koperqualuk, President
Herbert Nakimayak, Council Member

Board of Directors

The ICC Canada Board includes a President, a Vice-President for International Affairs, a Vice-President for National Affairs (the President of Inuit Tapiriit Kanatami) and four directors, the Nunatsiavut Government, Makivik Corporation, Nunavut Tunngavik Incorporated and Inuvialuit Regional Coporation. Presidents of Pauktuutit (Inuit Women's Association) and the National Inuit Youth Council are permanent participants of the organization.

Council Decisions

Decisions are made by the 9 member ICC Executive Council at meetings held approximately two times yearly over the Council's 4-year mandate. The Presidents of ICC Chukotka, ICC Alaska, ICC Canada and ICC Greenland serve as Vice-Chairs for the Inuit Circumpolar Council. Their Vice-Presidents serve as Council members. A Chair of the Inuit Circumpolar Council is elected by the General Assembly every 4 years.

Guidance

In serving the global interests of Inuit, the Executive Council is guided by:

- Charter and by-laws
- Principal goals adopted by the General Assembly
- ICC's guiding document, Principles and Elements for a Comprehensive Arctic Policy
- Specific 4-year mandates given by General Assembly delegates
- Inuit Circumpolar Declarations
